FAREWELL TO ALMA MATER.

GRADUATES AT STEVENS INSTITUTE:

THIRTY-NINE YOUNG MEN RECEIVE THE DE-

GREE OF MECHANICAL ENGINEER. The commencement exercises of Stevens Institute of Technology were held at Jacob's Theatre, Hoboken, last night. Thirty-nine young men received the de-gree of mechanical engineer, this being the only degree given by the institute. The holding of this degree, however, is a guarantee of excellence in electrical engineering equal to that of men holding special degrees in this department. The exercises were presided over by the president of the institute, Dr. Henry Morton. The Rev. Edward Wall made the opening prayer, and the benediction was pronounced by the Rev. George C. Houghton, rector of Trinity Church, Hoboken. Introductory remarks were made by President Morton, and the address to the gradu-stes was given by J. F. Holloway. The saintatory oration was delivered by Henry Tonance. In and the oration was delivered by Henry Tonance, Jr., and the valedictory by Henry Morton Brinckerhoff. #### SENATOR DANIEL AT RANDOLPH-MACON. AN ADDRESS ON THE POWER OF YOUTH-CON-ARIBUTORS TO THE FUNDS OF THE COLLEGE.

Ashland, Va., June 19 (Special).-The closing exercises of Randolph College took place to-day. The feature of the occasion was the address before the students delivered by John W. Daniel, United States Senator from Virginia. The address took place in the Duncan Memorial Chapel, which was crowded to overflowing with trustees, professors, students of the college and many distinguished visitors and guests. Mr. Daniel's subject was "The Power of Youth in This Living Age." He spoke eloquently and impressively, and closed his remarks by saying to the students that he considered it the best thing in the world to be a boy, an Anglo-Saxon boy, an Anglo-Saxon-American boy; and, if anything more is needed to make the climax complete, an Anglo-Saxon-American-Virginia boy. At the conclusion of his address, in the most graceful and eloquent manner, he pre in the most graceral and eloquent manner, he pre-sented the sutherlin gold medal for oratory to J. H. Riddick, Jr., of North Carolina. Among the promi-nent New-Yorkers who have lately contributed to the finances of the college are Mrs. M. E. Crawford, mother in law of William K. Vanderbilt; Arnold, Conmother in law of William R. Vanderblit; Arnold, Constable & Co., H. B. Claffin & Co., Roger A. Pryor and Alfred Sully. The new science half and observatory lately built, has been thoroughly equipped throughout by S. Morris Pryor with the Pryor collection of physical science apparatus.

The new Randolph-Macon Academy, at Liberty, va., will be dedicated on July 4. Many of the Governors of the Southern States, editors and college presidents will attend.

Dr. Horton, the principal of the school, also made a few remarks in which he told the Rev. Mr. Nichols that three members of the baseball team, the pitcher, catcher and shortstop, were winners of prizes for excellent scholarship.

HOLDERS OF SEASON TICKETS INDIGNANT.

Purchasers of season tickets for the Theodore Thoma concerts at the Lenox Lyceum allege that they have been unjustly treated by John Mahnken, Mr. Thomas's business manager. On May 30 a series of "Summer Nights Concerts" was begun at the Lenox Lyceum, the Sights Concerts, was begin, at the Lenox Lycelin, the season to last four weeks. Many season tickets at $10 each were sold in advance, and the lovers of good music anticipated an enjoyable succession of concerts. The season was brought suddenly to a close on Satur-day night, however, by Mr. Mahnken, who on Monday went out of town on a visit to some friends.

The holders of season tickets were griceously of fended and demanded that, as only half the number of concerts proposed had been given, half of the amount paid for their tickets should be refunded. As amount paid for their tickets should be refunded. As Mr. Mahnken was out of the city there was no one to give a satisfactory reply to these demands. Mr. Thomas said vesterday that it was altogether Mr. Thomas said vesterday that it was altogether Mr. Mahnken's affair, that he (Mr. Thomas) had been engaged with his orchestra at a salary, and that Mr. Mahnken was to take all the profits. None of the latter's friends have any idea that he intended to evade his obligations, and he has sent word that he will be at steinway Hall to day to make whatever settlement seems proper and right. It is understood that the season was closed to avoid financial loss.

The concerts will be resumed at the Lenox Lycenum next Sunday night under the management of Nahan Franko. Mr. Thomas's orchestra will be increased by the addition of the musicians belonging to the orchestra of the Metropolitan Opera House. Eduard Strauss has been invited to be present on the opening night.

LITTLE DONE FOR RAPID TRANSIT.

Little satisfaction was expressed yesterday with the announcement that the Rapid Transit Commissioners had selected a route for a new system of rapid transit only between the City Hall and the Grand Central Station. The location of this route, practically the same one named by Mayor Hewlit three years ago, and then charged as being made in the interests of the New York Central and Hudson River Railroad, has strengthened the opinion formerly held by many that the Mayor's Commission was only appointed to give Assemblymen Gibbs and Fish an ex cuse for their desertion of the Republican member of the Assembly and defeating Senator Fassett's Rapid Transit bill, which would have removed many of the restrictions that now stand in the way of a rapid transit route from the Battery to the Harlem Riggr. ransit route from the Battery to the Harlem Riger.

A decision in the argument made some time ago before the Court of Appeals in a case to test the legality of the Vandenburg charter is expected to be handed down within the next few days. If the decision is favorable to the company it is understood that an attempt will be made to restrain the Rapid Transit Commissioners from laying out a route in the streets covered by the Vandenburg charter.

THE TRACK IN EXCELLENT CONDITION-WINNERS AND THEIR TIME.

Fleetwood Park yesterday to see the circuit-trotters. The well-kept track was at its best, and the winning contests. Each race had a field of seven, and nine heats were necessary to decide the two. For the 2:33 class J. C. Delavergne's bay gelding Clayton was well squared away in the second heat he had the speed of the party and beat Eastern Boy on the home stretch to his death, september 20, 1889, the secretary of the corporation, of both branches of which he has been a member, viz., a trustee for three years and a fellow for the remainder of his life. Mr. Thurston was, in this one when she was closing on Eastern Boy, near the special department to which he devoted himself, viz., law cases connected with questions relating to patents, perhaps at the head of his profession in this country, was not only eminent as a lawyer, but "a man putting to a remarkable degree husiness capacity." in 2.26 1.2, his first mark faster than 2.30. Abble V. was closing on Eastern Boy, who took the pole after Clayton's downfall, and coming home she outfooted the gelding and finished in 2:261-4, beating her former record of 2:273.4, made two weeks ago at Paterson. Clayton's backers hedged by plunging on distance, leading him easily in 2:20 3.4. Then it was 5 to 1 on the gray trotter, and the fifth heat ended matters in her favor; Ida Norwood getting next to the Aberdeen mare as she came home strong in moderate

Quartermaster getting there first by a short neck, with Brown working hard and Nicholson sitting motionless behind Royal. The heat was only in 2:24, and as Quartermaster was known to be good for better time, the odds were 5 to 2 on him for victory. Royal was not to be despised, however, for he got the pole in the first quarter and was only beaten in the last yard by a scant head in 2:22:1-2. His driver did not appear to help him at all, and the indges thought of taking him out. He protested so strongly that nobody else could keep him level that no change was made, and the fourth heat found him unable to last. #### CELEBRATION AT VALLEY FORGE. Norristown, Penn., June 19.-Under the auspices of the Patriotic Order Sons of America the anniversary of the evacuation of Valley Forge by Washington's army was celebrated to day. Large delegations of the Patriotic Order Sons of America arrived at Valley Forge early in the foreneon, accompanied by thousands of other visitors, including hundreds of school children who had a holiday for the celebration. In Norristown and the surrounding towns business was partially sus-pended. By 10 o'clock thousands of persons sur-rounded Washington's Headquarters, now owned by the Valley Forge Centennial Memorial Association. The exercises at the headquarters consisted of addresses, recitations, music by the pupils of the Norristown public schools, and the reading of two prize essays on Valley Forge, written by Anna P. Dugan and William C. Bettenhorse, who received gold and silver medals respectively.

eign buying, however, furnished a strong buil argument, and there were reports of speculative covering of shorts in the Western markets as well as buying by Hutchinson. A late reactionary tendency was developed by favorable reports on the foreign crops, following easy foreign cables. July opened at 92%, rose 14 cents, and on the curb receded to 93% cents. August opened at 91, rose a shade above 92 cents, and on the curb sold at 91% cents. September went from 90% to 91% cents, and December, after opening at 92½,292 7.10 cents, rose to 93%, and closed on the curb at 92% cents. The net gains shown by the official quotations were 3, cent for July and 3, cent for the other mentals.

Cash wheat was 3,22 cent higher but quiet. Only 16,000 bushels were taken by shippers, but 40,000 bushels were bought by receivers to arrive "c. 1, f." paid.

The corn market was strong in the early dealings on light receipts West and talk of a bad crop outlook. Cash lots advanced ½ cent but reacted later, in sympathy with Chicago, June 19 (Special) .- Hutchinson took some pains not sell at 85 cents. He was a considerable buyer, especially at those moments when price looked most like yielding. All the options scored an advance over Wednesday

THE PETROLEUM MARKET.

The crude petroleum market continues to rule so dull as to ferbid any attempt at an analysis of its condition or the quotations at the Consolidated Exchange, and the differ-ence in prices between the two boards amounted to 1% cents at the close. The Stock Exchange sold oil under 90, but is last price was the highest point of the day. The op-tions, however, rose from 90% to 91% cents, and ended at only a small recession from the best figures. It is a singu-iar feature that cash oil should for so long rule below the only a small recession from the best figures. It is a singliiar feature that cash oil should for so long rule below the price of anticipatory sales, such as the dealings in futures are at the Consolidated Exchange. There is a growing impression that there is some "deal" pending in the potroicum world which, when completed, will furnish a new starting point for speculation. Pending news or devolepments, the trading spirit is entirely repressed. The fact that the Standard Oil interests are eagerly seeking for producing territory supplies a support to values which might be lacking otherwise, as the export trade continues to lag in the apparent expectation of securing lower prices later on. The crude markets closed firm in tone.

The range of prices and the total dealings were as
